Independent Language
Learning Centre

Independent Language Learning Centre

We support both learner and teacher autonomy in foreign language learning.

For us autonomy means:

- self-determination
- responsibility
- decision making
- cooperation
- new roles for learners and teachers

Language Learning Advisory Service

The Language Learning Advisory Service offers:

- support with self-directed language learning
- help in choosing appropriate learning materials
- advice on developing your own learning strategies

Experience new ways of language learning with our advisors!

Tandem

Language exchange for learners of all languages:

- an intensive linguistic and cultural exchange with a native speaker
- a dynamic and flexible organisation of your language learning

Workshops

- cross-language and language-specific training
- learning strategies and tips for your individual learning goals
- tasks for learning with a tandem partner

Multimedia Learning Environment

- PC workstations with specific software and interactive language learning programmes
- TV cabins and work spaces for individual learners and small groups
- DVDs and audio books for a wide range of languages
- an extensive collection of learning materials, reference books and newspapers
- materials for exam preparation, including DSH, TestDaF, TOEFL, IELTS, DELF, DALF, DELE, CELI and CILS

Website

- the WEGA online catalogue for language specific searches helps you find just the materials and media you need
- a Learning to Learn section with study guides and a variety of learning tips for self-directed language learning
- annotated web resources and links for language learning
- online application form and up-to-date information about our Tandem programme
